

Programming Policy: Open Access

- I. All Library programs are open to the public. The Library's philosophy of open access to information and ideas extends to Library programming, and the Library does not knowingly discriminate through its programming.
- II. A fee may be charged for certain types of Library programs and some programs may be limited in number due to materials fees, the presenter, or space considerations.
- III. Registration may be required for planning purposes or when space is limited.
- IV. Programs may be held on site at the Library, or off site.
