Committee Report(s): None

Director's Report:

The Bridgerton Tea Party was featured on FOX 17, and although small, it was thoroughly enjoyed. Karen S. storytime has been well attended, the current theme is "Around the World." Reilly's felting programs have been very popular. Some of the May programs were expanded to accommodate the interest. Statistics were up for the month. The Budget is up to date. Mango Languages contract was renewed for the next three (3) years. Ants were seen in the break area and maintenance was informed immediately. Debbie Sewers from the Township has ensured that the Godwin bill has been taken care of. Reilly is applying for a sizable grant. Jeffrey attended an informational meeting about a COVID grant, however, the library probably won't qualify. Reilly attended the Township Board meeting on March 24 and the FY 2022-23 budget was passed including our $50,000 appropriation, but no increase. Jeffrey met via telephone with Linda and Cathy from Then and Now Historical Society regarding the local history project he is hoping to fund through the Improving Access to Information Grant. The Library has been contacted by a Wayland Union student about possibly volunteering at the library. The library had no closings in the past month.

Committee Report:

The Personnel Committee met to discuss the Director's 90 day evaluation as well as wages for the new budget year. Trustee Vice President Hunter will meet with Jeffrey Personally to deliver the evaluation. Her intent is to interview staff and speak further with Jeffrey before presenting the evaluation.
