

Friends of Dorr Township Library

What is FODTL (Friends of Dorr Township Library)?

FODTL is a newly formed non-profit organization that supports our library in many ways. Our mission is to help educate the public and advocate for the importance of a library in our community, as well as support the library through fundraising, and enhanced programing, and community outreach.

Who can join FODTL?

Anyone can join FODTL! Membership is free, and residency is not needed to be a part of our group.

What do members of FODTL do?

Members of FODTL support Dorr Township Library by doing things as simple as telling neighbors about the importance of our library or sharing library experiences on social media. If you'd like more involvement, consider donating to our group or volunteering your time for different events and activities.

How do I join?

Contact friendsofDTL@gmail.com to be added to our email list, or like and follow us on Facebook @FODTL.
